TURKISH ARMY WEAKENING

SOFIA, Bulgaria, October 27.—Reports have been received here from the scene of war stating that the Bulgarians have been victorious in another battle under the walls of Eski-Baba and that this city has surrendered to the allies.

It is now planned to drive the Turkish armies into the sea, or at least into Asia.

Famine in Scutari and Adrianople is adding terribly physical suffering to the wounds caused by Montenegrin and Bulgarian bullets and shells. Bread was three dollars a loaf in Scutari this morning.

The survivors of the battle of Kirk Kileesh and the reserves at Dinotka, the three field corps from the Tachidje and troops returning from Asia Minor are being concentrated as a seine to cover the Capital, these amplified by the garrison of Adrianople.

A Constantinople special dispatch says that the great battle of the war will likely be fought between forces guarding the trunk road at Eski Baga and Serai.

If the Ottoman troops are defeated in this great battle they will retire within the trenches and forts which protect the narrow isthmus, while the Porte makes a final appeal to the Great Powers to save the Empire from annihilation.

Uskup, Turkey's hope against the armies of the East, has fallen. Adrianople, key to the Bosphorus, swept by fire started in a hundred places by bursting shells from the Bulgarian artillery and beset on three sides by an irresistible infantry and cavalry attack, is doomed.

Scutari, the easternmost Turkish outpost in Albania and the only restraining barrier before the army of King Nicholas of Montenegro, is undergoing a Montenegrin bombardment that cannot be resisted another twelve hours.

Germany will not assist Great Britain, France and Russia to end the Balkan mountain states war. Kaiser Wilhelm is quoted as having told the imperial chancellor of Germany to light his pipe with the note sent by Sir Edward Grey of Great Britain.

War department officials are elated over the present state of Pearl Harbor defenses proved by last week's Hawaiian war game. A dispatch has been received by the war department giving a synopsis of the work. A detailed report, which will be forwarded by mail, will form the basis for fortifications, on the plans now in process of completion.

For the first time since he came back from Chicago to recuperate from his bullet wound received in Milwaukee, Colonel Roosevelt today ventured outdoors. He discovered that he was far weaker than he had thought.

The Colonel walked slowly down the path to the tennis court. By the time he got there, he was wondering at the distance of it. He stood leaning with a hand against the railing of the driveway. The short walk had weakened him.

The Rev. Thurston U. Vaughn, charged with attacking three little girls, Saturday was found guilty. The jury made no recommendations for clemency and Vaughn was sentenced to die in the electric chair on December 20.

The New York Herald announced this morning that test ballots, taken in thirty-five States, show Gov. Woodrow Wilson leading in twenty-six Roosevelt in five and Taft in four States.

Arthur Smith placed his fiancée, Miss Amie Cour, beside him in his biplane this afternoon at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and flew to Hillsdale, Michigan, seventy-five miles away, where they were married.

The parents of the young woman had objected to their marriage but tonight when they learned of the flight and wedding they telegraphed Smith he would be welcomed in their home, but for him to ship his machine by freight and return with their daughter on a train.

J. Pierpont Morgan today presented Trinity College with $200,000 to cover the expenses of erecting a library and administration building to be known as Williams Hall.

The contract for a loan of $7,500,000 has been completed by the Robert Dollar company of Shanghai for the construction of the new Hankow electric car line.

Julia Sanderson, the actress, was yesterday granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from James T. Sloan.

better known as "Tod" Sloan, the former world's best racehorse jockey. Excitement is at a high pitch here tonight over the report that the court-martial sitting in Vera Cruz will condemn General Felix Diaz to be shot at sunrise tomorrow, and over the futile attempt of the Chamber of Deputies to get a quorum to interpellate President Madero on the matter.

Threats of assassination have been received by Supreme Court Justice John W. Goff, District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, the conspirators who turned State's witnesses and the members of the jury who convicted Police Lieut. Charles E. Becker, who will be sentenced to death on Monday for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, on July 16 last.

A reign of terror is feared here. If any of these threats is fulfilled, citizens are determined to organize a vigilance committee and clean out the criminal haunts of the East Side by the most drastic measures of reprisal.

All doubt regarding the provisions of the enlistment of soldiers under the new war department ruling governing enlistments is dispelled through circular No. 1 of the department, received Friday in division headquarters and which, referring to the length of service, under the Act that becomes operative November 1, reads as follows:

The term of enlistment is seven years, the first four years to be in the service with organization, and the last three years to be on furlough without pay or allowances and attached to the army reserve.

The report printed in New York and cabled to Rome of the marriage of Katherine Elkins and Billy Hitt caused a sensation, as the Italian nobility was at first inclined to regard the marriage as a slight to the Duke of Abruzzi.

PRINCETON.—The speedy Tiger eleven outclassed Dartmouth in a sensational game today, the Princeton winning by 22 to 7.

The steamship Asiatic Prince, arrived at New York today from Brazilian ports, reported the rescue of thirteen men from the burning steamship Fagundes Varela, sighted off the Brazilian coast on the morning of October 7. The ship caught fire from chemicals in her hold.

Because of his conviction Thursday of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, Police Lieut. Charles E. Becker, has been automatically dropped from the police roll of the Greater New York.

He will have his picture taken for the "Rogues' Gallery," and his measurement will be recorded in the Bertillon books.

Just as soon as Supreme Court Justice John W. Goff pronounces the death sentence upon Becker, he will be confined in Sing Sing, where he will await the movement in the higher court. He will be closely guarded night and day.

The transfer of hearts, stomachs and kidneys from their casements of flesh to vessels in his laboratory, where they are performing their functions day after day, is the addition to his list of surgical wonders announced by Dr. Alexis-Carrel of the Rockefeller Institute, who has just been awarded the Noble prize in science.
